STUDENTS SPEAK

In the Amity College, where I am studying presently, we are offered foreign languages and having learnt Spanish in my undergraduate classes, I took up French. My knowledge of Spanish has helped me to pick up French quite dexterously and I am looking forward to do well in French as well. However, I personally feel that Spanish is much easier to learn.

-- SUBHOSHREE GANGULY

I had just completed the second level in Spanish, when I had the opportunity to visit Spain with my father who had a conference at Barcelona. Left on my own, I would be on the streets, on the busy plazas talking with the Spaniards in their mother tongue. It was absolutely awesome to communicate with them in Spanish and for this I shall always be indebted to Lady Brabourne College.

While I am about to complete my post-graduation programme, I am aspiring to do doctorate in the U.S.. Spanish, being the official language of US and the language of the masses there will definitely make me feel at home abroad. I am thankful for my college for introducing Spanish in the undergraduate levels.
